MURDER AT CARLISLE.

Robert Scott Shot and Killed by Edward Mason.

MURDERER BROUGHT HERE.

Yesterday afternoon late the usually quiet village of Carlisle was thrown into a state of excitement over the report that a cold-blooded murder had been committed only a stone's throw from the city.

There are about as near the particulars as could be gotten: Yesterday morning Ed. Moran, about 35 years old and rather a nice-looking man, went to Carlisle and took on a good high swing of liquor.

He was said to have been a pretty fair fellow when not "in his cups," but he was not so when he was drunk. He was almost unbearable, which is nature with any man.

Along in the afternoon Moran started for his home in Carlisle and in company with his jag he had to have its side partner, a large pistol, for Moran was "bred in old Kentucky."

When about four miles out a dog near the place of Mr. Robert Scott began barking, and it made Moran nervous, as well as his friend, Mr. Barleycorn, so he took the dog open fire on the poor brute.

Mr. Scott, who was standing at the gate of his place, is one of the best and most influential farmers of Nicholas county, and was the friend of all who knew him. He remonstrated with Moran for shooting at the dog, which was quite natural for any one to do.

Moran, steadying his large load and himself on the horse, looked at Mr. Scott and said: "Q—d—d—n you, I'll shoot you."

Raising his gun he fired, the half striking Mr. Scott in the eye, killing him instantly.

Moran was arrested and taken to Carlisle and placed in jail.

As soon as the news spread around it was decided that he should be tried, which Chief of Police C. C. Dunn and Constable W. F. McGowan intercepted by bringing Moran here last night and placing him in the Mason County Jail for safe keeping.

When told on the train what he had done and how close he came to being lynched Moran began to cry, seemingly before not to realize the great crime he had committed, and when they arrived at the jail he was still crying.

After being looked up he broke down and wept bitterly.

He will be kept here until it is thought safe to him back for trial.

Does It Pay To Buy Cheap? A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right but you must remember that colds and coughs are the most serious and dangerous results of cold and lung trouble. What shall you do? Buy a name and a name worth a dollar? Yes, it is possible for you, then is either you or the only remedy that has been produced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung trouble, "Bainbridge's Cough Syrup." It not only soothes and stimulates the throat to destroy the germ disease, but it also soothes the inflamed membrane, thus giving you a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try it. It is recommended many times by all druggists. Beware of cheap imitations. For sale by J. J. Wood & Son.

ROOSEVELT DAY.

A Big Crowd Is Expected In Maysville Next Monday.

The visit of Governor Roosevelt, Republican candidate for Vice-President, in this city next Monday afternoon, October 15th, will doubtless attract a big crowd.

The distinguished New Yorker will be accompanied by Hon. A. E. Willson of Louisville, both of whom will make short addresses.

If the weather is favorable the speaking will probably be at Sutton and Front, or if necessary the meeting will be held at the Opera-house.

It will be a great day for Republicans and the visitors should receive a royal welcome.

The speaking will be at the foot of Sutton street and Governor Roosevelt will not be the first distinguished man to deliver a political speech there.

Some of those who have spoken on Sutton street where the next Vice-President will speak are Henry Clay, W. L. Vallandigham, General Scott, former Governor Metcalf, General Grant, President John Quincy Adams, Hon. George H. Pendleton, the great Civil Service reformer, and Hon. W. H. Wadsworth.

Thus it will be seen that the best speakers and most talented men of this country have been guests of Maysville and Sutton street.

Mr. Bryan—Hello, Central! I want to talk to the American workman. Central—He's at work and very busy. Mr. Bryan: ring off, please.

Day after day the responsibility for the farce being enacted at Frankfort is more securely fixed upon the machine leaders.

The Senate, not controlled by a combination of Anti-Machine Democrats and the Populist and Republican Senators, had passed a fair bill. It could very well have refused to consider the House bill until the House had taken action upon the Senate bill. But it was more liberal. It was ready to show that it was not wedded to its own measure, that it was willing to pass any fair bill. When it had thrown all responsibility on the House it took up the House bill and proceeded to make it a fair measure. It substituted the Treasurer of the State for the Clerk of the Court of Appeals as the third man on the State Board.

An amendment was passed making the County Clerk the third man of the County Board. The number of names to be submitted by the party committees for Precinct officers was reduced from eight to four. Amendments were passed, making the members of the State and County Boards ministerial only. When the Senate had thus made the House bill really a new and fair measure, Senator

Thomas on behalf of the extremists, thinking to confuse the anti-machine majority, offered a substitute restoring the law as it existed before the enactment of the Goebel Law. But they were not to be caught, says The Louisville Dispatch. The substitute was amended to require the County

Judges to appoint from lists furnished by the party committees, and providing for the alteration of the Sheriff, and with these amendments it was passed, thus putting all of the Senate opposition to the machine on record as in favor of the absolute repeal of the Goebel Law, while the Goebelite extremists are on record against every fair proposition.

The substitute as adopted by the Senate is practically the same thing as the original Alexander Bill. It absolutely wipes out the Goebel machine by which centralized control of the elections is secured and it remedies the principal defects in the old law by restricting the power of the County Judge. If the House will pass the Senate bill or the House bill, as amended in the Senate, or the amended Thomas substitute as passed by the Senate yesterday, we will have a reasonably fair Election Law. It is now up to the House to do something or end the farce by showing that it does not propose to permit the passage of a fair law.

The Legislature has been in session for six weeks with nothing before it but the election laws and the farce has already cost the State nearly $40,000.

Every day of delay is an expense of $1,000 to the taxpayers of Kentucky. If the bosses are determined that nothing is to be done, if they are determined that this expense shall be for absolutely nothing, if this extra session has been intended from the start as a part of a desperate game of politics, why should deception of the people and the plunder of the Treasury

PULLED THEIR REVOLVERS.

The Sheriff and Officers Kept a Mob at Bay and Landed a Man in Jail at Carlisle, Ky.

Carlisle, Ky., Oct. 9.—Just outside the city limits, at 5 o'clock Monday evening, Ed Norman shot and instantly killed Robert Scott, aged about 65. The ball entered just below the left eye and passed directly through the head. Scott was on his way home about when overtaken by Norman, who began shooting at a dog at his side, and when Scott told him that he would knock him off his horse if he hit that dog he fired, with the above results. Norman was captured, but the sheriff and deputies had hard work to land him in jail. The officers were followed by a mob of 500 excited people, who seemed only to fear the pointed revolvers of the officers, or Norman would have probably been hanged to the nearest tree. Though landed in jail Norman is not considered safe. The officers have taken precautions, but can not tell what the night will bring forth.

ANSWER IT HONESTLY.

Are the Statements of Mayvillite Citizens Not More Reliable Than Those of Other Strangers?

This is a vital question. It is fraught with interest to Mayville. It permits of only one answer. It cannot be evaded or ignored.

Any stranger's doubtful. Home proof is the best proof.

Mr. Robert Wise of Forest Ave. says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are from the evidence I have, a sure cure for backache. I say this not only from my own experience but also from that of several others who have received the greatest benefit from the treatment. I suffered from pain in the back, a disordered condition of the kidney secretions and symptoms of an inflamed condition of the bladder. Provening Doan's Kidney Pills from J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, they gave me quick and effective relief."
